ORDER REGARDING SHACKLING AT PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

U.S. Marshals Action Required

A pretrial conference will be held in this matter on May 29, 2018. The U.S. Marshals have requested permission to restrain in-custody defendants using leg shackles during that hearing. The Court finds that there is a compelling government interest in ensuring the safety of all individuals in the courtroom, including defendants, counsel, and courthouse staff. There will be six in-custody defendants present at the hearing, along with two out-of-custody defendants. The U.S. Marshals also expect that family members or other members of the public may be present.

In addition, all in-custody defendants are facing a mandatory minimum sentence of ten years based on the conspiracy charge reflected

1 in count one of the superseding indictment in this matter. Due to the 2 security risks presented by the many defendants and other individuals
3 who will be present in the courtroom and the nature of the charges in 4 this case, the Court finds that using leg shackles is the least
5 restrictive means possible for maintaining security and order in the 6 courtroom and accomplishing the Court's compelling interest in
7 ensuring the safety of everyone in the courtroom.

8 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED: At the May 29, 2018 pretrial
9 conference, the U.S. Marshals shall place all in-custody defendants in 10 leg shackles during the hearing.

11 IT IS SO ORDERED. The Clerk's Office is directed to enter this 12 Order and provide copies to all defense counsel.

13 DATED this 28th day of May 2018.
